
Tools for Movement Composition

Workshop for choreographers by Thierry De Mey

The Tools For Movement Composition workshop summarises Thierry De Mey's work. Many artists based their work on this methodology, to name a few: Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker, Sidi Larbi Cherkaoui, Wim Vandekeybus, Iztok Kovač and many more. While I was his assistant in Simplicity, we developed new methods of compositional tools. We created floor pattern structures together, he draws fantastic patterns, and I had to come up with the mathematics of how to organise the dancers on those patterns. I believe it is the most complex choreographic methodology. We taught together this workshop for dancers in Angers CNDC. It was a floor pattern workshop together with the repertoire of Simplicity.
